

I support eliminating the Morse code requirement for Amateur Radio.
There's no reasonable justification for requiring demonstrate of this antiquated skill." Most operators never use Morse after they pass the test.